

IMPORTANT RESEARCH USE ONLY DISCLAIMER – PACIFIC AMINOS

ALL PRODUCTS SOLD ON PACIFICAMINOS.COM (THIS WEBSITE) ARE STRICTLY INTENDED FOR LABORATORY AND RESEARCH PURPOSES ONLY. THEY ARE NOT FOR HUMAN CONSUMPTION, VETERINARY USE, MEDICAL TREATMENT, DIAGNOSTIC PURPOSES, OR ANY FORM OF BODILY ADMINISTRATION.

Pacific Aminos sells these products exclusively as research chemicals for in-vitro laboratory experimentation, analytical testing, scientific study, or other qualified research applications by trained professionals. None of the products offered on PacificAminos.com are approved by the FDA or any other regulatory authority for use in humans or animals, and they are not intended to diagnose, treat, cure, mitigate, prevent, or otherwise affect any disease, condition, or physiological process.

By purchasing, accessing, or using the Pacific Aminos website or any products offered herein, you expressly acknowledge and agree to the following:

- You are purchasing these materials solely for legitimate laboratory research purposes and not for personal use, self-administration, ingestion, injection, inhalation, topical application, or any other introduction into a living organism.
- You are at least 21 years of age (or the age of majority in your jurisdiction) and are a qualified researcher or institution.
- You will comply with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and guidelines regarding the handling, storage, use, and disposal of these research materials.
- No statements, information, or content on the Pacific Aminos website (including product descriptions, blog posts, images, or any other materials) have been evaluated or approved by the FDA or any regulatory body, and none should be construed as medical advice, dosing recommendations, efficacy claims, or instructions for human use.
- Pacific Aminos provides no instructions for preparation, administration, dosage, or application in humans or animals, as such use is strictly prohibited.
- Any misuse, improper handling, or deviation from research-only purposes is solely the responsibility of the buyer. Pacific Aminos, its owners, affiliates, employees, and agents disclaim all liability for any damages, injuries, losses, legal consequences, or other claims arising from the purchase, handling, or use (or misuse) of these products.
- The buyer assumes full responsibility for ensuring that their intended use complies with all relevant laws and assumes all risks associated with possession and research use.

Misuse for human or animal consumption is strictly prohibited and may violate federal law. If you do not fully agree to these terms or cannot comply with them, do not purchase or use any products from Pacific Aminos.
